

3rd Nordic Hands-On Course in Intracorporeal Urinary Diversion

December 7th and 8th 2017
Department of Clinical Medicine
Aarhus University Hospital, Denmark

Program

Day 1. 7th of Dec. 2016

08.30 – 10.00 Introduction and briefing on course

- Welcome and introduction of participants
- Anatomic differences and similarities in pigs and human (Pernille Skjold Kingo)
- Stapling and uretero-enteroanastomosis (Jørgen Bjerggaard Jensen)

10.00 – 12.00 Training on pigs (2 groups of 3 participants)

Robotic training on pig

- Practical port placements and docking of the robot
- Exposure and clamping of the ureters
- Stapling
- Ureteroentero-anastomosis

Laparoscopic training on pig

- Exposure and clamping of the ureters
- Stapling

12.00 – 13.00 Lunch

13.00 – 16.30 Training on pigs (2 groups of 3 participants)

Robotic training on pig

- Exposure and clamping of the ureters
- Ureteroentero-anastomosis
- Neobladder

Laparoscopic training on pig

- Exposure and clamping of the ureters
- Stapling

19:00 Dinner Down Town ©

Day 2. 8th of Dec. 2016

08.30 – 09.00

- Uretero-enteroanastomosis and sutures (Gitte Wrist Lam)

09.00 – 12.00 Training on pigs (2 groups of 3 participants)

Robotic training on pig

- Exposure and clamping of the ureters
- Ureteroentero-anastomosis
- Neobladder

Laparoscopic training on pig

- Exposure and clamping of the ureters
- Stapling

12.00 – 13.00 Lunch

13.00 – 15.30 Training on pigs (2 groups of 3 participants)

Robotic training on pig

- Exposure and clamping of the ureters
- Ureteroentero-anastomosis
- Neobladder

Laparoscopic training on pig

- Exposure and clamping of the ureters
- Stapling

15.30 – 16.00 Evaluation and adjourn

No. of participants is limited to 6 (preferably consultants or senior registrars with special interest in robotic surgery and urinary diversion)

Fee: DKK 6.880,- (€ 925,-) (Accommodation and travel expenses not included)

Faculty: Gitte Wrist Lam (Herlev), Pernille Skjold Kingo (Aalborg) and Jørgen Bjerggaard Jensen (Aarhus)

Link to registration can be found at www.nuf.nu