

The 3rd Course for Nordic Residents in Urology

360 degrees around Prostate Cancer

Tampere, Finland, 20th and 21st January 2017

at Hotel Ilves, Tampere

The course fee is 100 - 160 Euro depending on accommodation options and includes all course meals.

For registration and payment and more information on accommodation and program please visit: <https://confedent.eventsair.com/course-for-nordic-residents-in-urology/nru-registration> and www.nuf.nu

Deadline for registration and payment 15th of December 2016
Your registration is binding and is only valid upon receiving payment

Program Friday 20th January

- Screening and how to inform about it (TBA)
- Diagnosis – How to interpret the findings with established and new tools, Professor Anders Bjartell, MD, Skåne University Hospital, Sweden
- Active surveillance, Antti Rannikko, MD, PhD, Helsinki University Hospital, Finland
- Treatment choice in localized and oligometastatic cancer, Bjørn Brenhovd, MD, Radiumhospitalet, Oslo, Norway
- New evidence - Should co-morbidities influence management?, Teemu Murtola, MD, PhD, Tampere University Hospital, Finland
- How to train your skills on the robot, Rafn Hilmarsson, MD, Landspítali University Hospital, Iceland

- PSA relapse – (what to do) when and how to initiate salvage treatments, Bjørn Brenhovd, MD, Radiumhospitalet Oslo, Norway
- Case and Panel discussions
- Take Home-messages
- Dinner

Program Saturday 21st January

- Advanced cancer – survival and quality of life, Peter Østergren, MD, Herlev University Hospital, Denmark
- Beyond ADT - oncological and new treatments (incl. sequencing), Timo Marttila, MD, PhD, Tampere University Hospital, Finland
- How to manage post treatment ED and incontinence, Mikkel Fode, MD, PhD, Roskilde Hospital, Denmark
- Case and Panel discussions
- Adjourn